CEU Credit Sheet

Name (print):
License #:

Overview of Cyber Security Issues in Water/Wastewater Organizations

Cyl	bersecurity Incidents and Emerging Threats - Charles Egli, WaterISAC,
1.	Identify one recommendation for reducing the vulnerabilities of industrial control systems to breaches.
2.	Briefly describe ransomware, indicating what this malware does to systems and what attackers demand to make these activities stop.

Process Control System Security Guidance for the Water Sector - Philip Gaberdiel, P.E. – EMA, Inc.

- 3. Is an AWWA membership required to use the Cybersecurity Guidance tool? (Yes or No)
- 4. Are the recommendations provided by the Guidance tool consistent with the Cybersecurity Framework developed by NIST? (Yes or No) Provide additional information if possible.

SUBMIT FORM WITH NAME, OPERATOR LICENSE NUMBER, AND ANSWERS TO Julie@weat.org Forms, sign-in sheets, and presentations can be found at:

www.weat.org/cybersecuritywebinar.shtml Office: 512.693.0060 | Fax: 512.693.0062

Call or email with any questions.