2024 WEAT Laboratory Workshop: Creating Public Trust through Collaboration, Innovation, and Data Quality

September 19: Full Day | September 20: until 12 PM
Austin Water Permitting & Development Center

www.weat.org/events/2024-lab-workshop

The 2024 WEAT Laboratory Workshop is designed to cover a broad range of topics pertinent to laboratory staff as well as wastewater treatment operators. The day-and-a-half event will provide attendees with information on various contemporary laboratory topics. There will be opportunities to network and collaborate with other laboratory analysts and operators on various issues affecting data quality. The workshop will feature vendor booths allowing participants to discuss some of the new innovative technologies in use for testing wastewater. Please join us for the 2024 WEAT Laboratory Workshop – Promoting Public Trust through Collaboration, Innovation, and Data Quality.
